He was a member of the Durant First Baptist Church and the Elks Lodge.

Greg is survived by his wife Jill of the home, son Aaron Dills "The Golden Child" and wife Lynsey of Durant, OK, daughter Emily Conley "The Diamond Child" and her husband Kyle of Durant, OK, three grandchildren Wyatt Conley, Owen Conley, and Paxon Dills, father Dale Dills and wife Carolyn of Durant, OK, Mother Cindy Gipson and husband Lew of Durant, OK, brother Todd Dills and wife Tammy of Grove, OK, two sisters Lori Wilson of Durant, and Kaci Walston and husband Tyler of Durant. “ *We're so sorry to hear about Greg's passing. My husband worked with him years ago at S & L, and I'm from Tushka and my kids were there when you taught there Mrs. Dills. I never had the opportunity to know Greg, my husband said he was a great guy and he enjoyed his personality, especially his sense of humor. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless you. “ Jill and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember Greg as very generous, happy and always smiling. He had a way of making you feel at ease with his good-natured teasing and joking around. I also remember Greg as a great athlete that made lots of long touchdown runs on the playground and in organized football from the time we were 4th graders all the way to high school. I hope any pain and sorrow you feel now will quickly be replaced by fond memories.

“ Greg will truly be missed by many,,Greg was a natural when it came to classic cars Greg painted my 1968 Camaro in 1987 and after 37 years it still looks as good as the day Greg painted it I remember i went by one day to check on it he had just painted it but was not finished with it Greg told me that he went ahead and took out a few waves and that he painted my mirrors the same color as the car and that he was going to also leave the pin strips off the sides and hood that it would look better,I told him i don,t know about that and Greg said just wait until i,m finished and you will see.

Boy was he right it looked great.

Later Greg opened his window tint shop and i took the Camaro to him and ask if he could tint the windows he ask how do you won,t them done i told him to use his on judge meant.

when i went to pick the Camaro up Greg smiled and said it is illegal but looks great.

Greg was right on again super dark and looked great

I will miss Greg

Cindy: my heart goes out to you for I was with my mother as she grieved a lost son. Dale no father should have to bury his son and my heart heart is with you as well. Lori and Todd I pray you guys find comfort and peace. I hate when good guys go to soon. Greg and Judd made life a hell of a lot more fun. Greg was a simple kind of man and a stand up guy like everyone knows, to me grown up across the fence ill remember, ole "Junk yard dog". World seems a little darker.... God bless the Dills family
