

Greg Alan Hammack

October 19, 1962 - August 19, 2017

Gregory Alan Hammack passed away Saturday, August 19, 2017 at the age of 54 years and 10 months old. He was born on October 19, 1962 to Dr. Charles Hammack and Mildred (Christopher) Hammack.

Greg moved from Missouri and came to Bryan County in 1967. He married Patricia Naron on October 20, 1990 and they spent 26 wonderful years together. Greg studied at Southeastern Oklahoma State University and became a Production Supervisor in Industrial Commercial Manufacturing. He was a member of the Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity. During his spare time, he enjoyed watching football and going fishing.

He is preceded in death by his parents Dr. Charles and Mildred Hammack, and sister Edie Hammack.

Survivors include his loving wife Patricia Hammack of the home; son, Christopher Hammack of Durant, OK; daughter, Tara Hammack of Durant, OK; step-son Nicholas Naron of Durant, OK; brother, Jeff Hammack and wife Susie of Chesapeake, VA along with many other family members and dear friends.

There are no services at this time.

Tribute Wall

“ Greg Alan Hammack

---

January 08, 2023 at 11:32 PM

“ I worked with Greg for many years in Austin, Texas, I found him to be honest, warm and very competent. He will be sorely missed by me and everybody in Austin who knew him. My prayers go out to his family, both immediate and extended. He was a great friend.

In deepest sympathy,

John Phillips

---

John Phillips - August 23, 2017 at 08:29 PM

“ Greg was a great brother-in-law and I love him very much! He was a good uncle to my daughters who loved him so much. We are all heart broken.

---

Katherine Friedrich - August 23, 2017 at 08:33 AM

“ I have fond memories of all of the Hammack's. Greg was particularly kind and just a good guy. To his survivors, I send my condolences.

Lynn Latham Schulenberg

---

lynn latham schulenberg - August 22, 2017 at 08:37 PM