

Helen Pierot

March 22, 1936 - July 19, 2020

Longtime Durant resident Helen Francis (Ulch) Pierot passed away peacefully & into the loving arms of Jesus on July 19, 2020 in Frisco, TX. Services to be held Brown's at Brown's Funeral Home in Durant, OK. Jul 23, 2020 at 10 am.

Helen Pierot was born in Denison, TX on March 22, 1936 to parents Lester & Lula Mae Sutherland Ulch.

Helen attended Denison Texas Schools. Helen married the love of her life, William (Bill) Pierot, Jr. on July 1, 1953 at Rev. Elza England's home in Denison, TX (Bro Elza England is the father of Rev. Raymond England – here today.) Bill & Helen started a family with 2 daughters, Debbie & Kathy. Helen was a devoted stay-at-home Mom that loved to cook, care, & sew for her family. She could alter a man's suit down a whole size & no one could ever tell it had been altered.

In the fall of 1970, Bill & family decided to travel & spread the Gospel in song full time. They traveled on their Greyhound bus multiple times across the nation & held countless concerts. Helen's love for singing Gospel music & meeting people was only surpassed by her love and caring for her family. She made sure her home was filled with joy and the love of God. In her spare time, she enjoyed fishing with Bill, planting flowers, baking, & holding garage sales. Her garage sales looked like a finely tuned retail store.

Helen is survived by daughter, Debbie & husband Kip Crawford of Celina, TX, daughter, Kathy & husband Rex Moore of Eagle Point, OR., grandson, Sean Welborn & wife Erlane of Paris, TX, granddaughter, Nicole & husband Jacob Hert, of Owasso, OK, great-grandsons, Chandler Aynes, JJ Welborn, Stetson Hert, Emmett Hert, & Holt Hert & 1 sister, Ruby Stanton of Alabama, & a host of nieces & nephews.

Helen was preceded in death by her beloved husband, William (Bill) Pierot, Jr., parents Lester & Lula Mae Ulch, 4 sisters, Margaret, MaryLee, MinnieBell, & Dorothy Ulch, & 1 brother, Frank Ulch.

Interment will follow funeral services at Highland Cemetery. Pallbearers will include Kip Crawford, Nicole Hert, Jacob Hert, Brian Ulch, Harvey Smith, and Mark Ramos.

Family Hour will be held Wednesday, July 22, 2020, 6-8 pm at Brown's Funeral Home in Durant, OK.

“ What a beautiful and wonderful testimony Bill and Helen had. I have everyone of their records, tapes, CDs, and attended concerts for decades. Both allowed Jesus to shine through their lives. What a wonderful testimony! My precious dear friends! Every day, "I've Got More To Go To Heaven For, Than I had Yesterday." I can almost hear them singing in the Angel Band. We will join them and so many others soon.

Bill and my mom worked at Winn Dixie for years. Bill would sing over the intercom! Oh, how I loved to hear the Singing Pierots!!!

Prayers, Blessings, and Love,

“ Some of the best childhood memories I have were our vacations to see Granny Ulch which usually meant we would also get to see Aunt Helem and Uncle Bill also. All the Ulch girls had that big beautiful smile and kindest hearts. Im so grateful to come from this lineage of amazing women. Rest in Peace sweet Aunt Helen.

“ Deborah and Kathy, your mother was such an inspiration to my family and I. Just yesterday I listened to Bill and your mother sing “Just as The Sun Went Down”, and sang along with them probably 30 times. I am rehearsing the song to sing at church and their rendition was so beautiful! Another song your Family sang was mama’s teaching angels how to sing and it has finally came to pass. May God give comfort to you and your entire family.
