

Hollis Reed Fuller

December 20, 2023 - July 30, 2025

Wade, OK- Hollis Reed Fuller left this world too early on Wednesday, July 30, 2025 from his home at the age of 1 year, 7 months and 10 days. Reed was born on Wednesday, December 20, 2023 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma to Alec Fuller and Teigan (Munson) Fuller.

In his short time with us, Reed loved dancing to any type of music that happened to be playing, especially commercial jingles. Reed could hold conversations with anyone even though he had his own language. He would talk at you for hours if you didn't let him go outside when he wanted to. Reed loved being outdoors, feeding his cows and horses, and working on anything he could get his hands on with his handy toolset. He was the #1 ranch and farming hand that anyone could ask for, especially to his grandparents who made sure he had a seat ready for him in every piece of equipment they owned. No matter the day, Reed could put a smile on anyone's face and had laughs echoing around him constantly.

Reed was preceded in death by his great-grandpas Hollis Munson, Jerry Mack Fuller, and Phillip Rowland; and a great-great grandmother June Pardue.

He leaves behind his loving parents, Alec and Teigan Fuller of Wade; grandparents, April and Chris Pierce of Boswell, Deidra and Trustin Munson of Wade, and Steven Throneberry of Bokchito; great-grandparents, Jane Rowland of Bokchito, Linda Munson of Wade, and Donald and Cooky Dean of Bennington; aunts, Tyler Anne Munson (Alex Garcia) of Wade, Emery Allen of Boswell, Danielle Atwood (Matt Olguin) of Farmington, New Mexico, and Wade and Rebecca Fuller; and uncle, Brody Pierce of Boswell; along with other family members and good friends.

Funeral services to celebrate Reed's life will be held at 10:00 AM on Monday, August 4th, at Brown's Funeral Home chapel in Durant. Pastor Landon Jestis will officiate. Reed will be laid to rest at Wade Cemetery following services. Pallbearers will be Sawyer Holcomb, Garrett Mitchell, Ethan Mitchell, Clayton Davis, JoDan Davis, and Tom Dean. Honorary pallbearers will be other family members and friends.

The family will receive friends on Sunday, August 3rd, from 6-8 PM at Brown's Funeral Home in Durant.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.brownsfuneralservice.com.
