“ I remember anytime we would see Uncle Homer & Aunt Betty, they were always glad to see us, of course I would lose out on the conversation because Tom & Uncle Homer always talked farming or dairying, which I did not mind. I always felt close to him because I knew he & Daddy were such close brothers. We will sure miss him & Aunt Betty. Our prayers & thoughts go out to Silva & the rest of the family.

“ Homer Gilbert was like a brother to Charley Norris my Father in-law although he was Charley's nephew. Homer was like an Uncle to Glenda and since the first time we met he was like an Uncle to me also. After Charley died Homer was there to give us fatherly advice and helped Glenda and I many times. Homer gave me guidance on buying cows and sometimes gave me a scolding if I was doing things unsafe on the tractor. Homer and Betty were friends, neighbors and like a father and mother to Glenda and I and will sure be missed.

The most important thing to Homer and Betty were family and they taught their family by example that you have to work together to succeed. I know that he was concerned about family not getting along because he would sometime discuss it.

We love Home and Betty Gilbert's family and desire God's peace and guidance for them at this time.
