“ Cousins are your first friends and in this case Butch was my first and best friend. I will never forget the times we went shooting in the swamp, Hickey's Creek, and Saturday night at La Belle in Florida, or picking black berries, playing in the woods, and hearing about "exploits" he had while being a carnie when he visited us in Tennessee.

He was a very good story teller! We took a short road trip together and it was the most entertaining journey I've ever had, tales of skirmishes he and ed were victorious, or barely escaped from, and slipping away with ill-gotten swamp cabbage for the cookouts our of manicured high society yards! Lol. Will be missed terribly.

I love you papa and I will never forget the days we shared with ice cream and stories and NASCAR. I wish I could've said goodbye, but I'm glad I can remember you in better times and health. I'll miss you so much, I love you.

Butch was friend and cousin. When we were small he lived next to us. Played cowboys and Indians, picked blackberry, and run all over the place. When I was 12 John and I got to spend a summer with him and Eddie in Cleveland Ohio. What a great time.
