“ Aunt Inez was my grandma Ruth's sister. Although I didn't get to see her often, I was very fond of her. She's blowing me a kiss in this picture taken at her 90th birthday party. She will be missed. Thoughts and prayers to all her family. Fly high Aunt Inez!!

My wife, Cindy Wilson Childs and I both worked for Mrs. McKinnon when she ran the Rocky Mountain News Agency in Laramie out of their home at 567 North 4th and Mr. McKinnon worked as a foreman at Richards Oldsmobile. Mrs. McKinnon was my first real boss and I think of her at odd times even into my own twilight of life.
