My prayers are with you, Mona Kaye, and your family. I didn't know your dad but I know you and he must of been a great father to have raised a daughter as special and kind as you are. I'll always appreciate that your parents allowed you to come to aid of my nephew when he was hurt in that car accident. You being there in the hospital with him was a great comfort to us all. Your mom and dad were very kind and understanding in allowing you to do that and have raised a child that has a servant's heart. Your dad was a good man and I am sure he must be very proud of you. Hugs and prayers for you all at this difficult and sad time.
