JD was always willing to "haul" us crazy kids all over the place. Our most memorable trip was to Six Flags in the back of a cattle truck with church pews for seating. He& Joan took us to Bryan County Fair when JD had just returned from work. He was so tired that Joan kissed him repeatedly so he'd stay awake while driving home. We had some great adventures!

“ So many memories of JD and Joan. They spent so much of their time pouring their lives into us when we were teenagers at First Baptist Church to keep us on the straight and narrow. So thankful for them; loved this family dearly. Prayers for the family.
