Uncle Danny and Aunt Wilma were two of my favorite people. When Aunt Wilma brought him home for all the family to meet her new husband I fell in love with him as well. He was so handsome, funny and outgoing we ALL fell in love with him. He NEVER changed. The last time I saw him he was still the same happy, laughing Uncle Dan I always knew. I suppose that's why I fell in love with the man he introduced me to. Cliff was just like Uncle Danny! They were good friends when they were growing up. They were even candlelighters in his sister, Mary's, wedding. Uncle Danny you will only be missed for a short time because we'll all be joining you and Cliff soon and WON'T WE HAVE A TIME?!!!!

“ I knew him most of my life. He called me "bumper and a jumper". I don't know why but I didn't mind because it made me smile. I didn't get too old for my nickname either. He was Bro. Danny to me although in Oklahoma he was called Jim. I feel sad that he is gone but I know he has gone to a better place.

“ I looked forward to seeing Jim everyday when I went to work. He'd come in and say "Good morning, good morning, good morning!" And was always smiling. He was such a great friend and he will truly be missed by so many. We shared many stories and memories thru the past 11 years I've worked at Lakeway. Jim was more than my friend, I thought of him as family ❤️
