“ Dearest Family of James Smith,

I join with so many others who knew James and your family (our neighbors for many years) in offering our deepest sympathy on his passing. Although it is little consolation at this sad time, it should be of some satisfaction to know that in his passing you can celebrate the end of a very long and productive Christian life. The measure of a life well-lived is not in how much money one has or what possessions they have accumulated, but rather through the lives they touched and the sorrow they leave behind. If the outpouring of sympathy on his loss is any indication, and it most certainly is, you can proudly and confidently say that his indeed was a life well-lived. I know Mother will be there to greet James into Heaven.

May you find peace and comfort in knowing that his loss is felt by all who knew and loved him.

Our Sincere Sympathy,

Jan (Albert) Wood & the family of Lou Albert

“ *Ann, Jennifer, and Steven,
I'm so sorry for the loss of James. I am so glad I got to know him, when I worked with him. He always seemed to have some prank up his sleeve. He made us laugh quite often, with his sneaky sense of humor. Sending prayers to you to give you courage during this time.
Love you much.*
