“ This is from my family now, Bettye Willingham, and my Parents who have passed. Leon and Oleta Miller. We all adored Janette. She was loud, proud and opinionated. I loved talking to her about her trials and tribulations. She had struggles as we all do. She strived to get above it all. She loved her God, Family, and friends. Girl I'll miss you. We never had a chance to get together, but I enjoyed her when I saw her, Kelley if you ever need anything remember this family has always loved 🤗 you! I'll be there. God Bless! Bettye Willingham.

“ Such a sweet soul gone to soon. I remember going to my first tanning booth with her and her letting my children come out and ride horses on her family property. Deepest sympathys to Kelley and the family.
