“ My deepest condolences to all of you. Its been many years since I had the pleasure of meeting JD, but I will always remember what a kind and respectable family man he was. Im praying that youll find some comfort in all the wonderful memories of him, that each of your heartaches will lessen with time, and that you can have peace in knowing youll all be together again someday...forever. &128591; ~Susan

My deepest condolences to your entire family. I always felt blessed to have such a sweet, loving and musical uncle. I wish you strength to get through this time of sorrow. He is playing and singing with angle choir now. "We shall all meet together by and by"

“ Barbara,
Please know my prayers are with you and all of your family during this very hard time. I never had the pleasure of meeting your father however the many stories you shared with me I relate to. I too am the only daughter of a wonderful loving father. I am with you in the love and respect of your father. Blessed you have been to have him as your Daddy. Prayers for the boys as well. I am always just a call away if you need anything.
