“ So sorry for your loss. I went to see Jean right before her birthday last year and had full intentions of going to see her again but didn't make it. She was a wonderful lady and will be greatly missed

“ Jean was my mother almost as long as I had my real mother, she was an awesome person, Always friendly and loving, never negative, A joy to travel with. so glad she got to see several places she wanted to see before she left, one was the Grand Canyon. So thankful Martha and I got to show it to her, also to visit the old home place where her Father was from. I really loved her, she was a rare treasure. her daughter Martha, my wife is so much like her
