“ I had the fortune of knowing Jean since not long after she moved here. When her husband became sick her biggest worry above his health was his salvation. She wanted to see him in heaven. He and I developed a bond that would lead to many talks about why he didn't believe and why I did believe. Eventually he asked me how he could become a Christian and I showed him the Roman road. We prayed and he became a Christian that afternoon when I could find a minister to help reassure as he wanted to make sure he went to heaven. Jean and I shared a bond from that day forward. I am so happy she is now with not only Jesus but her beloved husband. I will never forget you Jean. Love you always. I know heaven has a beautiful flower garden just for you.

“ I wrote two stories about Mrs. Pyeatt in 2015. They are on my website

Those two stories are about her. I wrote them in 2015 and I re-wrote them for my website in honor of her passing. It was an honor to know her. She was my mothers friend.

“ My Mom, Helen Broom, and Jean became best friends working together as Pink Ladies. I can just imagine them smiling and hugging when they greet each other up in Heaven. She was a beautiful lady inside and out. Rest in peace sweet lady.

“ Jean was a pleasure to know. She was one of the most faithful hospice volunteers and it was my privilege to work with her.
