“ Jean is a part of my growing up memories. Pete's and Geo's meant Jean or as my Dad called her Tomboy. We thought the world of Jean. I know my Dad will be sad to hear of her passing. Our prayers and thoughts go out to all the family.

“ Jean Turnbull was an icon in Durant, Oklahoma. Though 45 years have passed since I last saw her, the memory of her is fresh in my mind; always wearing the perfectly starched and ironed white shirt with dark blue jeans and polished black shoes; cool aviator sunglasses that set off her jet black hair and a smile that beamed of warmth and goodness. Thank you, Jean, for the memories... You were one of a kind and so very special to so many. May the Lord bless you and keep you in perfect peace.

“ My Mother lived close to Jean until Mom passed away 3 years ago. Jean became a dear friend to all our family. If she saw me leaving to run to the grocery store she would go immediately and sit with Mom until I returned. Since Mom went to Heaven, when I returned to Durant for a family visit I'd always go by and see Jean. She was a special person. See you in Heaven Jean!!!

“ Jean was a true friend of all of us growing up in Durant and going to Pete's or George's after school on on those early dates. Everyone truly liked Jean. May her family find peace by knowing she had so many friends.
