“ Jenny and I worked with each other for a very long time. We both worked together at same home and sister homes. After the years had passed some time I had started a job waiting tables in Durant, Oklahoma at the Waffle Shoppe. Jenny frequented that coffee shop and I was working one night she came in and ordered a hot tea. She had come to see her husband while he was working that night and I was the lucky one that night. I don't know how Jenny saw my bedroom in the backseat of my car but she asked me why it was back there. I was embarrassed yes. But a liar or story teller without truth I'm not. So I swallowed up my pride and told her I was living in my car at the lake. I slept there after work if it wasn't too hot. About 20 minutes later Jenny told me she wasn't letting me stay in my car anymore. She didn't have much to her it seemed to offer me but to me it was paradise. I'm so grief stricken about this. I want to extend my deepest sympathies and condolences to the family members and friends who are missing her and lost this angel. May God be the mother to her children and teach them how to make peace after this. God speed.
