

Jerry Alan Fults

January 19, 1956 - October 27, 2015

Jerry Alan Fults was born January 19, 1956 to Wilba and Manuel Fults in Brawley, California. His early childhood years were spent in Niland, California until 1968 when his parents returned home to live in Bokchito, OK.

Jerry relocated to Houston, Texas after graduating from Bokchito High School in 1974 to work as a pipefitter. He excelled in his career in pipefitting serving as a superintendent and inspector, working all over the U.S, Pakistan, Africa and Italy.

Jerry always had “Annie”, his four legged best friend with him as he traveled from job site to job site. He was very talented in making knives, spurs, and training horses. He was hired as a professional wrangler to care for the horses and other livestock on the set of the movie, “The Alamo”, resulting in him being hired for a small part in the movie.

He loved the outdoors and sharing stories of his life experiences with his many friends and family.

The family would like to give a special thanks and recognition to his friend, David Braggs who selflessly helped care for Jerry during his illness.

Jerry is preceded in death by his father Manuel Fults, mother Wilba Fults, brother Tommy Fults and infant grandson Breck Ehnis.

Survivors include his wife Linda (Winkelman) Fults, daughters Amber Ehnis of Terrell, TX, Amanda and Diana of Texas, brother Roger Fults, of Bokchito, sister Melodie Draper and husband Randy of Durant, OK, and sister Valerie Hunter and husband Bo of Bokchito, OK. Other survivors include special “ Jerry definitely marched to the beat of his own drum. He always seemed to be the center of attention and he loved life, telling tall tales, always enjoying time with family and loved ones. He was a mans man yet a delicate artist. He loved to drive all the way across Houston just to tell my dad a bald-headed joke. I love and I will miss Jerry. He is a huge part of my childhood memories. Rest in peace my dear cousin. I Will see you again.

“ To the family of Jerry please accept my sincere condolences. Jerry was interesting to talk to....he loved his travels and the experiences he had outside of our little Oklahoma town. We also enjoyed our conversations because of our mutual love of horses. RIP Jerry!

“ *So very sorry to hear about Jerry.
Never forget how Rita Kay and I would ride the old clunker bicycle.....or maybe just walk through the woods over to your house, and then Jerry would drive us back home in your Moms semi-automatic car.*
