“ I met Jerry the fall of 1964. We worked together at Kirkland Drug Store on Boulevard. We soon became friends. Jerry, his brother Tommy and I spent a lot of time together. I missed Jerry so much when he relocated to Colorado. The last time I saw him was at his Mother's funeral. I will always remember Jerry and the fun we had together.

“ Oh the memories that you created, Jerry Frazier! Never did a person provoke me so, yet at the same time delight me with your depth of soul and truly caring for those that you love. I miss you and Phylis both...terribly. Hoping that you are stirring up as much fun mischief and thought proking topics in Heaven as you did on earth.
I love you, Jerry.

“ Dear Jerry,
I did not know. The last time I talked to you was about Kevin's death. I just can't believe this. You and Kevin together again, just like in college. Love you Jerry.

“ Haven't seen you Jerry since college days. I remember you teaching me a couple of good finger picking styles for the guitar. We had fun during those years. The world will miss you but I believe you will be in God's hands now and will rest in peace. May He be with you and your family. Love and Respect fraternity brother.
