“ I will always remember Jim as putting others needs ahead of his own. He was also the great entertainer of the family. What a dear, sweet man he was, and I feel he made us all laugh a little louder when he was present. Heaven is a lucky place today.

“ I remember as a young nephew to Jimmie, he and Aunt Jean cutting a rug. They were 2 of the best dancers I have ever seen. I remember them dancing on my patio in the summers of the early 60's. That guy could move and was a joy to watch. This is how I will always remember him the most, dancing up a storm.

“ Jim, thanks for the beautiful memories we have of you -- cashew brittle (yum, yum, yum), all the woodworking creations you made, all your songs, your sense of humor and the way you made us laugh, your words of wit (not be be confused with bull s---). And most of all, we really loved your heart and love for Jesus.
