“ My Deepest condolences to the Jimmie Jr. Hutchison and family, Jimmie will be sorely missed, I'm David, and am proud to have had the privilege to have him as my brother, and I will miss his keen wit, to name one, but a memory; when he lived in El Paso, I would go visit, the one time ,which sticks in my mind was, we all went fishing in a little creek FULL of rainbow trout, you know Jimmie driving in saw this little guy with a stringer full of legal size trout, what bait you using, " fish eyes, after the first one you'll see ", you could say that was when I learned how to fish, cook, of course eat, it was feast, Jimmie, Jimmie Jr., and Vivian, at least 52 years ago, that is a quick one could carry-on, another one, learned about his real fear of scorpions watching him cut off a Javelin muskbag, saw baby scorpions, which evidently they live one sometimes, he he started shaking, eyes wide open hands frozen in front of him, we moved the Javelin, come to find out he had been stung by a scorpion, 2 or 3 times, when he was playing in the our mom anddad's yard on Steward blvd, Tucson , AZ .....I will close with this I loved my brother, didn't see him physically enough, or talk to him enough, but he was always in my thoughts and prayers, and I'll see him again, God Bless All 🙏
