“ *Our condolences to the family, as well as those to who had the opportunity to know Joe Bass.
Joe, we're gonna miss you man. I'm glad we met and got to be friends and fishing buddies; just not enough time though.
Not going to tell you goodbye, but just "see ya later" for now.
You will be in our thoughts whenever we are down on the banks of the Washita.
God Bless Joe, we love ya!

“ Joe was a kind hearted soul. I remember him coming to the house in Mead to play with my brother. My Mother would invite him to eat with us. He loved his sisters and nephew very much. I pray the God of all comfort will guard you hearts and mind during this time of loss. You will always have your memories of him and he lives on in your hearts. He was loved and you are also.
