

Joetta Sue McDonald

March 14, 1943 - January 26, 2009

Joetta McDonald Cobbs was born on March 14, 1943 in Shay, Oklahoma to Clyde Jefferson and Daisy Eleanor (Laxson) McDonald. In 1958 she married Leon Cobbs in California. They returned to Bryan County in 1973 with their children to make their home. Joetta was creator and editor in chief of “Clydedaisy”, the family newsletter. She owned and operated Country Charm Quilts and was an ordained minister of undenominational faith. Amid all this she found time to be both a mother and a wife. She loved her grandchildren, studying the bible, sewing, quilting, crocheting, and oil painting. Joetta will be greatly missed by all her family, friends and everyone’s lives she touched.

Joetta was preceded in death by her parents; a son, Greg Cobbs; a daughter, Christy Jordan; and brothers, Billy D. McDonald and Denzel McDonald.

Joetta is survived by her sons, Robert Cobbs and wife Janet of Savoy, TX, Mike Cobbs and wife Terri of Comanche, OK; daughters, Stacie Whitthorne of Kingston, OK, and Ronda Cobbs of Durant, OK; her spouse Leon Cobbs of Erick, OK; brothers, Ron McDonald and wife Mary of Friendswood, TX, Ross McDonald of Madill, OK, and David Lynn McDonald and wife Connie of Duncan, OK; a sister, Sandy Johnson and husband Randy of Broken Arrow, OK; 12 Grandchildren, 10 Great-Grandchildren, and 17 Nieces and Nephews.

“ *My Sister,
Compassionate, Spiritual, Creative, Intelligent, Gifted, and Easy Going. One of her goals in life was to make sure everyone knew about Jesus. She never judged anyone. She always had time for me. She is in my heart forever and will be deeply missed. My regret is not being able to spend more time with her. Some of the most happiest times I spent were with her.*

“ Dear Aunt Joetta, I hadn't seen you in many years and I wish I could've been there. I, like Justin, have so many great memories of you when I was a kid. How I would look forward to getting down to Shay for the reunions, you were always such a big part of those. You will be greatly missed. Love you very much, your neice, Jodi Lee Parker

“ Aunt Joetta, although we were not close in my adulthood, I have some very fond memories from my childhood that I will carry with me always. I wish you could have known my wife, Amy; I know you two would have loved each other. I love you and you will be missed.

Your nephew,
Justin
