“ It breaks my heart to lose a friend as loyal and as good of a person as you, Joey. We once had a tight knit group that left quite a legacy at Harrigan’s. We solved all of the world’s problems and had more fun than most people will ever know. I love you, Melissa and your family and I wish we could have one more Saturday night toast with our crowd of friends. You left us much too soon my friend. May God bless your spirit.

“ Dear Melissa, our thoughts go out to you and the rest of the family. Joey was a only a year older than me and a 2nd cousin. But, since he lived in Oklahoma, and I was stuck down in Texas, I always admired him from afar.

As I got older on my many visits to Oklahoma to visit the grandparents, or to take in an OU Football game, I decided to reach out to Joey and start a friendship from afar.

He stopped by a Moody family reunion in Calera around 1989 and we struck up a conversation. From that point on we touched base occasionally, and would usually meet up at OU/TX to say hello to each other, or run in to each other in Norman.

In the last 5 years or so we got to spend a little more quality time together taking in OU Softball games. I really enjoyed this late in life friendship with Joey, and will really, really, miss him.

Melissa, I really hope you can find some comfort in the love and memories you and Joey shared over the last 46 years. I know he loved you deeply and you were his lifetime soulmate.

Until next time Joey, my cousin, rest in peace and Boomer Sooner!
