

John Emanuel Dyer

October 10, 1923 - October 25, 2015

John Emanuel Dyer, age 92, a resident of Kingston, Oklahoma passed away Sunday, October 25, 2015 in Ardmore, Oklahoma. He was born on October 10, 1923 to John Sydney and Lodus (Delaney) Dyer in Blanchard, Oklahoma. He married Flossie Irene Brown on February 19, 1946 in Rockwell, Texas and they were happily married for 69 years. He served our country proudly in the US Army for 4 years and fought in World War II. He was of the Pentecostal Holiness faith and he worked as a concrete layer for many years. He loved making things like sun twirlers and wooden handles for hammers and axes and when he would finish laying concrete he would put a leaf print on it. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

He is survived by his wife, Flossie Irene Dyer of Kingston, Oklahoma; brothers, Bill Pierce of Nebraska and John Sydney Dyer, Jr. of Tennessee and many dear and loved friends.

He is preceded in death by his father John Sydney Dyer; mother, Lodus Perry; sister, Hattie Berry, Lucille Freeman and Mary Lee Trueblood; brothers, Paul Dyer, Joseph Dyer and Doyle Perry.

“ Very fond memories of John growing up. A very kind and gentle soul. And even as he grew older he could swing a sledge hammer longer and harder than men less than half his age.
