“ Uncle Milton was always larger than life for my brother and sister and me. When we were kids we adored the handsome young sailor. We thought he was the strongest man in the world. We have a picture somewhere of my brother and I hanging off his flexed muscles.

Later in life he always amazed us by showing up unexpectedly in Oklahoma from California.

We were always glad to see him.

He was our mother's only sibling and she loved him so much.

Although there were so many miles between them they always kept in touch with phone calls and cards.

Uncle Milton was a Christian and shared his faith with others. He loved his family.

He will be greatly missed.
