“ I had some very good memories of uncle John. I use to work at the nursing home. He would love to take care of linda and make sure floyd got his snacks at nighttime. i can think of a time uncle john sent me to the store to buy tobacco and gum. He did not want the change back. So later that night I put it on his bed side table. The next day he gave it back to my little girl. He always called me little bertha. he said i looked like her not a mary. i will miss him. Sorry that we lost a good man
