“ Johnny Jones was a very dear friend to my Dad, Clyde Todd. Johnny was always very kind to me as well. I received the nick name from Johnny as "CRASH TODD" because I had a terrible habit of having unnecessary car accidents when I was in High School. My Dad and Johnny worked on many a fender bender due to my own mistakes.

Johnny was a very good person, a sweet friend, loved my Dad and my Dad loved him. They enjoyed visiting in person, over the phone, as well as exchanging funny texts or jokes via their phones and email.

Johnny was very sweet to call and come by to visit my Dad when my Dad was in the hospital; when my Dad got to where he didn't feel like talking on the phone to anyone, really, my Dad wanted me to be sure and tell Johnny, when he called; "Thank you for checking on me and I love ya."

Johnny will be missed by his family and friends. Love and Prayers to his sweet wife, Mary and his daughter, Crystal, as well as any other family members and close friends. Thank goodness for Reunions in Heaven.

Love,

Sheri Todd Hodge & Family of Clyde Todd
