“ Dear Mother of Jon,
I am so sorry for your tragic loss. There aren't words to describe a mothers pain.
When terribly sad things like this happen, we may ask why? We may even wonder if there is anything we can look forward too.
I wish to share with you the source of true comfort which can be found in the Bible's resurrection accounts. Reading such accounts, meditating on them, and visualizing the events can make the resurrection hope more real to you. (Romans 15:4) These are not just stories. They actually happened to real people like us, living at a real time and in a real place. Please read in your Bible 1 Kings 17:8-24.Luke 7:11-15; Luke 8:49:56
By means of Jesus ransom sacrifice, those of our dear loved ones who have fallen asleep in death, will , in the near future, benefit from the resurrection.[John 5:28.29]
May Jehovah God be with you
Sincerely Dianne Mullins

“ Jon was an amazing friend! He was so sweet and always carried a smile on his face that could light up a room. When Jon was around, there was never a dull moment and you had to find time to stop laughing from his sense of humor and grab your sides to breathe! His personality was the best! He was an amazing father and his life will be forever lived through the eyes and in the heart of his beautiful daughter; Myla. Prayers and love will be continuously sent to his family and close friends!

“ My prayers go out to your family. My heart is heavy and I wish there was something I could say to help you at this time. A parent should never have to face the death of a child. But there is many that is wishing they could help you through the next few days and the months ahead. I hope you find peace in your heart. Jon will always be there with you. God Bless your family. My prayers are with you

“ I have nothing but good things to say about Jon. I had only met Jon in school, we never hung out, but we did speak to each other at school. Everytime he talked to me, he was genuinely sweet, and he was polite. I hate that something like this happend. He was always smiling and goofing off; and made you feel better. My condolences to Dawn, Jack, Laurie and sweet baby Myla. Pray that God will wrap his arms around them and comfort them in their time of need. God Bless you
