

Jonah Nicholas Beck

April 22, 1993 - July 17, 2021

Jonah Nicholas Beck was born in Lake Charles, Louisiana on Earth Day (April 22, 1993) to Monique and Jeffery Beck. He always had a special connection with nature. He was an adventurous, curious, and talented child who grew into an exceptional young man.

His family relocated to Florida where his love for art and athletics flourished. He won art competitions and all-star recognition in every sport he played. Once again, in 2000 his family relocated this time to Durant, Oklahoma where he grew more talented in sports, skateboarding and freeline skating, art, percussion, choir, and guitar. He even made The Presidents Honor roll while attending SOSU. He will always be remembered by his smile, his generosity, his inquisitiveness, and his dedication.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather Conrad Guidroz.

Jonah is survived by his parents Jeff Beck of Durant and Monique Beck-Box and husband Ben of Durant. His sisters Merleigh Box of Durant and Andraz McDaniel and husband Chris of Atoka. His niece Aubree McDaniel and nephews Ethen and Caleb McDaniel. His grandmothers Judy Gayman of Austin and Cheryl Guidroz of Durant. His Aunts Jennifer Beck, and Julie Williams of Austin, Texas.

The family is planning a memorial gathering to honor his life on July 31, 2021,

in Pottsboro, Texas

Tribute Wall

“ Jonah Nicholas Beck

January 08, 2023 at 11:32 PM

“ Monique and Jeff, I am so very sorry to hear of your loss. Jonah was such a delightful boy. His quick grin always brought a smile to my face any time he was around. I loved having him drop by when we were neighbors.

Deb Wigington - July 31, 2021 at 08:43 AM

*Thank you Deb. I have thought of y'all often.
Monique*

Monique Box - August 06, 2021 at 07:58 AM

“ *Monique, Jeff,
Our thoughts are with you.
James & Sue
Lake Charles*

bent wire - July 28, 2021 at 11:30 AM

Praying for peace during this difficult time.

Holly DeLeon - July 28, 2021 at 01:53 PM