“ Jonathan, Stephanie and Monica were my neighbors for few years they would come play with my boys. My oldest Colton went to school with Jonathan and were good friends. Colton was friends with Stephanie too but hadn't seen her much in last few years RIP. I know justice will be served for you guys. Until we meet again

“ Jonathan loved weather. He asked me once last year where I lived before so I named off four or five places. The next day he showed me weather maps for Ithaca, New York, and OKC, Albuquerque, Wichita and Charlotte. Off and on, all year, he would randomly tell me the day's weather in one or two of those places. His interest in such a wide variety of subjects was incredible. He will be missed every single day.
