“ Dear David, Donna and Betsy
So so sorry for your loss. I know words can't help the pain you feel right now, but God will give you the strength you need to get through this. Time does not heal all wounds but it does help learn to survive with the pain. I pray for comfort as only God can give. Call anytime you need to talk or just want to cry and not feel alone. Love you all. Always , Donna Connel

“ Joshua you were my first born, the first to call me mom. What a honor it was to be your mother. The moment you were put into my arms I fell in love with you. You were so special born on your grandmas 50th birthday. Spoiled rotten yet loved so much. Our lives will never be the same. I will never hear your voice again or your laughter. All I have are memories. Some of the things you said or did as a child and even as an adult all come flooding back now. I will always treasure you sitting on my lap no matter how old you were. The memories will be treasured and some way, those memories will get me through this life. Until we meet again my Precious child. Fly high my sweet son

Love your momma.

*My precious son, it has been 1 weeks and 1 day and it feels like a life time ago that I heard your voice. I miss you so much. Your laughter, smile was contagious. You would light up the room when you walked in. You will always be 38, never to age. I will miss you sitting on my lap and telling me you would never be to big to sit in my lap. My first born, God needed you. I know you are having a wonderful time in heaven with others that have gone on before you. I know your grandma was smiling to have her baby boy with her. Watch over me son. I you have my heart with you. Until we meet again. I love you more than life son.
Love always
Mom.*
