“ Bless Karlita and bless her family and friends! I can't tell you how sorry I am for your loss, my heart goes out to all of you. As cousins, our two families would get together on occasion when we were small and while the grown ups visited or most likely played 42, we kids would be outside playing. Because my siblings were so much older than me I loved being able to be with my cousins that were my own age. Good memories and fun times!

“ Karlita kept my grandson Nicholas years ago. Nicholas loved his Kardiwida. He didn't talk well and this is what he called her. We will miss her. She had the best laugh.

“ I remember us going on a double date. You were dating Uncle Frank and I was married to the ex. You and I were talking and laughing loudly from the front to back seat (obviously annoying them) so they stuck us both in the back seat but it only backfired because we got even louder and started singing to the radio. (Intentionally) I so wish we had gotten together more after I moved back. You are a pleasant uplifting woman and will be missed.
