“ Karen Karlita, and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. I haven't seen Kerry in many years it makes me sad I didn't know him as a grown man because I know he had to be awesome! and it truly makes me realize what I missed. As a kid, he was so sweet and so funny! I loved him so! He is in God's care now! NO suffering, no pain, no sadness. We have that promise. I know when he entered those gates he was met by a multitude of family and lots of Duckworth family. He loved his Mother so much, I know they had a beautiful reunion. We will be with him soon!
