“ To Lelas children: So sorry for your loss. It is tough losing a parent, no matter how old you are. May God bless and comfort you through this difficult time.

Sammie, Tommie, Mary & Jane: I know this is a tough one. My Dad was so proud to call all of you cousins. He taught us that the path to happiness were family & faith! We too are proud to call you cousins. May your family and your faith help you through this part of life as well. We love you all!
