

Linda Jo (Humberson) Craig

November 13, 1940 - December 25, 2021

Linda Jo (Humberson) Craig was born Wednesday, November 13, 1940 in Fort Worth, Texas to Johnny Wayne Humberson and Emogene Elizabeth (Strickland) Humberson. She passed from this life on Christmas Day Saturday, December 25th, 2021 in Denison, Texas at the age of 81.

Linda grew up in Fort Worth. She was married to Billy Joe Craig who precedes her in death on November 10, 2008. They had lived in Cartwright since 1985. Linda was employed as a radio operator for the Texas State Dept. of Public Safety until her retirement in 2005.

Linda enjoyed going on trips and traveling to different places. She loved to go shopping at Walmart, Target and other department stores. Linda's joy was visiting and being with her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Billy Joe Craig; a brother Johnny Wayne Humberson; and her grandparents. Linda is survived by her sons, Michael D. Craig of Cartwright, OK, and Casey Craig and wife, Gena, of Crosby, TX; nephews, Vince Humberson of Crosby, TX, and Scott Alan Craig of Cartwright, OK; niece, Kelley Wally Craig of Pine Alice Park, FL; and great nephew, John Wayne Humberson and wife, Bonnie, of Crosby, TX.

Cremation services were selected and no services are planned at this time.

Online condolences may be sent to the family at brownsf@sbcglobal.net.

Tribute Wall

“ Linda Jo (Humberson) Craig

January 08, 2023 at 11:32 PM

Linda and I were friends in the 1960s. She was fun to be with, very sweet and caring. Life took us in separate directions. I have thought of her and missed her. I'm glad to know that she was happy. Rest in peace, sweet friend.

Frances Justice - February 08, 2025 at 09:09 AM