

Linda Lue Hazaleus

January 23, 1950 - September 26, 2025

Obituary for Linda Hazaleus

Linda Lue (Thomson) Hazaleus, age 75, passed away at her beloved “Farm Resort” in Coleman, OK on September 26, 2025.

Linda married her lifelong love, John Hazaleus, in Alamosa, Colorado July 10, 1970. Together, they built a life full of faith, family, and ranch living. For 35 years, Linda devoted herself to teaching and impacting countless children’s lives in the classroom. She was a member of Fusion Bible Church in Durant.

Linda’s faith was the guiding light of her life, best expressed in the words of Joshua 24:15: “But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.”

Before moving to Oklahoma in 2015 to follow her grandkids' adventures, she was a resident of Wheatland, Wyoming, where Linda treasured her years in the mountains. She loved the beauty of the open skies, rugged landscape, wildlife, and the mountains that brought her great joy. Those years deepened her love of the land and gave her memories and lifelong friendships she carried warmly into her Oklahoma life. Linda and John fondly called their Coleman home their “Farm Resort”. She loved ranch life in Oklahoma—every day brought joy in working cattle, fishing, hunting, and simply enjoying the land she called home. She had a passion for antiques and collecting treasures, and she never missed a chance to decorate for the holidays.

Most of all, she loved following her grandkids' sports and rodeo events, cheering them on with unmatched pride. Linda's presence in the bleachers was unmistakable. Known for her iconic, ear-catching whistle, she could cut through the noise of any announcer or rodeo arena to cheer on her grandkids. And if you happened to pronounce "Hazaleus" wrong, she wouldn't hesitate to make her way up to the announcer's booth to walk you through it — all with that same mix of conviction and kindness that made her unforgettable. Even then, you'd walk away not only knowing how to say the name right, but also feeling like you'd known Linda your whole life — and that you'd just gained a new friend.

Time with her family was her greatest blessing, and her relationships were the heart of her life.

She is survived by her husband, John Hazaleus of Coleman, OK; children Lynn Hazaleus Kober, of Silo, OK, and Jeff and Rebeca Hazaleus of Blue, OK; grandchildren Savannah Kober Womack of Achille, OK; Shaelynn and Carter Hazaleus of Blue, OK. She is also survived by her siblings Betsy Hall, and Terry Thomson.

Linda was preceded in death by her parents Dean and Ruby Thomson, son in law Rick Kober, and sister in law Trudy Thomson.

The family and Church are holding a Celebration of Life service at Fusion Bible Church in Durant, Oklahoma, on Friday, October 3, 2025.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Linda's memory to your local youth rodeo association—reflecting her lifelong love of hauling her son to rodeos and supporting her grandkids in the arena—or to a teacher, classroom, or school of your choice, honoring her decades of devotion to education.

She will be remembered as a devoted wife, loving mother, proud grandmother, faithful teacher, and steadfast supporter of all those she loved.

“Linda fed my husband and me more meals than anyone should have! We were involved with the high school rodeo club in Wheatland and would go out to John and Linda's to rope and she was always so gracious and would often make sure we were fed. I loved, loved, loved all the antiques in their home. It was such a very special place, and I will always remember her fondly. Love to John and Jeff and family. We are thinking of you and will keep you in our prayers. Jeannie & Wade Mitchell

“ Linda was my absolute "Sista"! That's what we always called each other. We were teachers at Chugwater, WY, USA... and loved our students and the Western way of life. Jeff was all cowboy, so she and John brought Jeff to our place to buy his first Roping horse, Red. Jeff was really young, but rode that horse and roped like a little pro. My husband ( who was a good roper) was so proud of him, and said , they couldn't buy a better horse for him, he and Jeff were really great! Linda absolutely put her children and husband first. Her family was everything and her friends were never forgotten! She is being horribly miss right now! Much love to her family, she will never be forgotten! ❤️

“ Oh my goodness, I will so miss my friend but also know exactly where she is! What a wonderful caring and spiritual lady. She was always sweet and supportive, understanding, a great listener, and a woman of strong faith. So proud to have known her and have her in my life. As a fellow antique lover, we so enjoyed seeing each other's houses. Hugs and prayers over John and her family. My heart is broken with you and for you. I will never forget her kind voice and demeanor. ❤️
