

Linda Darlene Weldon

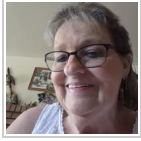

June 30, 1943 - December 4, 2024

Linda Darlene Weldon, age 81, passed away on December 4, 2024. She was born on June 30, 1943, in Coos Bay, Oregon to George and Wilberta Rowe. She was married to the love of her life Conrad Weldon until his passing. Linda worked as a CNA at Brookside Manor in Madill for many years. She attended the Church of Christ in Madill. Linda enjoyed gardening, pottery, cooking for her family, and doing arts and crafts with her grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her Parents George Edward Rowe and Wilberta Rowe (Smith), her husband Conrad Weldon. Her son Dennis Weldon, and two sisters Margot Richie and Judy Patrick.

Left to cherish her memories are her children Alan Crespin, Ivan Crespin and wife Marlene, Vickie Duveneck and husband Bryan, Sonya Darby all of Atascadero, California. Troy Weldon and Todd Weldon of Kingston, Oklahoma. Her brother Eddie Rowe of Nebraska and sister Sandy of Kansas, as well as numerous nieces' nephews, grandchildren and great grandchildren. At this time the family has selected cremation and will have a family gathering to celebrate Lida's life at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ I was married to her son Dennis and she was the most loving and excepting "mom" I knew. I was moved from my Oregon home to Oklahoma and a new bride and mom and she was immediately my friend and made me feel like I was at home. She was that way to all she met. I will miss her. Thoughts and prayers to all the family. ❤️🙏

Kelli Griffith - December 07, 2024 at 01:44 PM