“ Me and Lisa and Donna were inseparable when we were young all the way up till Our teens... The best years and memories of my life were with them. We would go to the races, skating, walking the neighborhood of course it was safe then... We always stayed over Ma's where we would hang out with other friends... I'll never forget playing spin the bottle with all of us and Johnny Strickland whom has also passed... We were such chickens and would run and hide but laugh and laugh... I wished she wouldn't have moved so far away and wish we wouldn't have all grown apart in our lives but I guess that's part of life. Though I haven't seen her in like forever she played a big part in my life and memories. I'm sorry I will miss the service and a chance to meet her daughter.
