

Lloyd Merrill Boehme

October 16, 1922 - August 20, 2022

Lloyd Merrill Boehme, 99, of Caddo passed away on Saturday, August 20, 2022 at the Veterans Center in Ardmore. Lloyd was born on October 16, 1922 in McAlester, Oklahoma to Johnny Boehme and Maudie Sorrels Boehme. Lloyd joined the navy in 1942 and went to San Diego for basic training. He went to Pearl-Harbor, he often mentioned sailing to Guam Tinian, Saipan, and crossed the international dateline. He was very proud to have served his country. He stayed in the navy until he was honorably discharged and he began working in government camps to help support his family. Upon returning to Oklahoma he met Bobbie Jewel Wells while bailing hay near Caddo, Oklahoma. The two were married on Dec 22, 1945 and blessed with two sons. Lloyd loved his wife Bobbie, his sons and grandkids and supported all of them in pursuing their dreams. Lloyd was married to Bobbie until she passed May 5, 2005. He was a member of Caddo First Baptist Church. Lloyd always ranched cattle, farmed hay, helped his neighbors whenever he could.

Lloyd is preceded in death by his His parents Johnny Boehme and Maudie Sorrels Boehme, wife Bobbie Jewel Boehme, son Bobby Merrill Boehme, brother and sister-in-law Chester and Anita Boehme, sister Ruby and George Lawson, and nephew Dennis Boehme.
