MARGARET P. (BYERS) TAYLOR OBITUARY

Margaret P. (Byers) Taylor left this world for the next early on Sunday, July 20th, 2025, surrounded by her loving daughters. She is preceded in death by her mother Norene Byers, father Virgil Byers, sister Pamela Byers, sister Phyllis Byers Kelly, and her loving husband Joe Taylor.

Born in Blanchard, OK, Margaret's family spent time Highlands, TX, then settled in Bryan County, OK where she attended middle school. There she met the love of her life, Joe Taylor, at age 14. They celebrated 60 years of loving marriage before his passing in 2023.

When she was 19 years old she went to Chautauqua, NY as an opera scholarship student and her love for that place was ignited. She went back nearly every summer since 1982 with her family and even sponsored several scholarship students to have the same experience she had in going to that beloved place to grow, explore, and celebrate learning.

The first person in her family to get a college degree, Margaret earned a BA in Music Education from Southeastern Oklahoma State University and went on to become a music teacher to many lucky recipients of her vast love of music.

While she was a teacher she helped pay for her husband Joe to go to law school, an incredibly impressive feat at the time.

After having her three lovely daughters Margaret became interested in law school and decided to pursue her own legal career. One of only two women in her tract at the time, Margaret received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Oklahoma.

She practiced both criminal and civil law, becoming the second female lawyer in Durant, OK. She gave much of her time to pro bono work, helping women in difficult situations and others in need. She claimed to be more of a humanitarian than a lawyer, which was shown through her actions. She gave counsel to many in need, without looking for recognition or adoration. Throughout her life she believed strongly in the rule of law.

Margaret's love for music was deep and inclusive. After law school in Durant she was part of a local band called "Phyllis Kelly and the Lawyers" (named by her children as an homage to Joan Jett and the Blackhearts), and played many gigs around town and for local organizations. She loved to play the piano, and instilled a love of music in her three daughters who eventually formed their own band and dedicated their music to her and their father. She often sang with her husband, and their duet version of "Smokey Joe's Café" was a favorite of theirs and of many others throughout the years.

Always contributing and helping, some of the organizations Margaret belonged to are: The Bryan County Bar Association, Oklahoma Shakespearean Festival (Board Member), Bryan County Federation of Democratic Women (President and Board Member), Day Spring Church, The Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, The Chautauqua Women's Club, The Chautauqua Bird, Tree, & Garden Club.

Margaret loved the arts, was an avid reader, loved to travel, learn, laugh, and loved animals - especially the many dogs she and Joe had throughout their lives – and considered herself “An Oklahoma girl through and through.” She was an extremely loyal friend with an empathetic heart and spirit, and truly believed in fairness and that your word had meaning. She met people where they were, and always tried to lead with love. She became a surrogate mother and grandmother to many family members and a “chosen grandmother” to many others. All the while with a twinkle in her eye and a place for you in her heart.

She was also strong in her faith. She found a lot of comfort in Psalms, especially during difficult times, namely Psalms 1:21. The last time Margaret rose from bed was to go to the couch to watch church.

She’s now reunited with the love of her life.

Margaret is survived by her three daughters, Marna (Brad Pemberton) Taylor, Leah and Jocelyn Taylor, brothers Joe Lee (Mary) Byers, Bob (Randi) Byers, sister-in-law Marilyn Mitchell, brother-in-law David Kelly, brother-in-law Terry (Renee) Taylor, sister-in-law Ethel Talbot. Nieces and nephews Jason (Lynn) Kelly, Laura (Jay) Kelly Cannon, Pamela (Aaron) Byers Smith, Patrick (Katie) Byers, Adam Byers, Abbey Byers, Jeannie (John) Taylor Torrance, Natalie (Billy) Taylor Vanover, Daniel (Lauren) Taylor, and special friends Kim Kamplain, Melanie Hearon (and family), Katrina Farr (and family), Nema & Cris Criswell and many other special family members and friends.

“ Marna, Jocelyn, and Leah, Paula and I are so sorry to hear of the passing of Margaret. We were on a trip out of state and could not attend the service. As you know, both of your parents meant the world to my parents as well as me. Joe, my father and me were all in the Army Reserve together which gives me some great memories. All of you know how much Margaret and Joe always loved being with family whenever they could. I will always remember Margaret's love of music and what a great lady she was!

“ Margaret (and Joe) were in and around my life for years, mainly through knowing my mom and stepfather. Mom and Pistol had so much respect that it spilled over to me. They were genuinely good, caring people. Margaret was always someone I respected, and watched for an example. She was so self-assured that I was at first sometimes intimidated, but I grew to love her, and your family. I am sorry for her passing, because of the pain it causes all who knew her. I truly believe she is now with her beloved Joe, probably singing their praises to the Lamb, and perhaps even "Smokey Joe's". My prayer is that God will be actively comforting those who mourn. She was an example of a strong, confident woman, and she was the mother of three strong women. Marna, Leah and Jocelyn, my heart goes out to you, but I know you will weather this storm, also. May God keep His arm around your shoulders, as you continue in your own lives, with Margaret's example to guide you.

“ Riley Risso Coker, daughter of OSF founder Molly Risso and longtime friend of Margaret Taylor, along with the Board of Directors of the Oklahoma Shakespearean Festival (OSF) have established a memorial fund to OSF in Margaret Taylor’s name. Her decades of service to OSF giving her time, talents, gifts, and creative instincts helped to make OSF the instrument of the arts it is today. We will miss her but will forever cherish her and her passion for OSF. We extend our sympathy to Marna, Leah, and Jocelyn and other family members and dear friends
