

Marion "Rusty" Sticher

August 21, 1931 - July 4, 2014

Marion A. "Rusty" Sticher was born on August 21, 1931 in Troy, New York to Maynard Luther and Marion Olive (Kittell) Bryant and passed from this life on July 4, 2014 in Durant, Oklahoma at the age of 82 years.

Rusty married Lou C. Sticher on July 4, 1956 in Weatherford, Texas and they were blessed with four children. Rusty was a true and proud military wife and a loving mother to their children. After Lou retired from the United States Air Force in 1978, they moved to Mead from Bossier City, LA.

Rusty was preceded in death by her parents, Maynard and Marion Bryant and son in law, Tom Anglen.

Rusty is survived by her loving and devoted husband of 58 years, Lou C. Sticher; children, Michael Sticher and wife Fran of Seabeck, WA, Sara Anglen of Eagle River, AK, Tracy Sticher of Benbrook, TX and DeAnna Jenkins and husband Clinton of Grand Prairie, TX; grandchildren, Ben Anglen and wife Lisa of Houston, TX and Julia Anglen of Chicago, IL; brother, Herbert Bryant and wife Emmy Lou of Tillamook, OR; sisters, Marlene Wallace-Tranowski and husband Jim of Montpelier, VT and Carolyn Marvin of Portsmouth, NH. Rusty's wishes were to be cremated. A private family viewing was held and there will be no public services. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to Southwest Indian Foundation 1-800-504-2723 or www.southwestindian.com. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.brownsfuneralserve.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Brown's Funeral Service, Durant.

“ Mom, On this Memorial Day I want to thank you for serving as a military wife through Dad’s career and deployments during both war and peace time. You kept our family together, and I am so proud to be your daughter!

“ Happy Mother’s Day, Mom! I miss you, but hold so many precious memories in my heart and thoughts! I love you dearly!

“ Good morning, Mom! We haven’t talked in a while. Easter has come and gone. The flowers at home are blooming throughout the yard, in various locations - thanks to Annie!. The Indian Paintbrushes have just begun to come out as well. The other day, Sara, Tracy, and I were reminiscing about the songs you liked to sing and the traditions you always held at the holidays. I miss hearing those songs and, though I try to keep the traditions alive, they are not the same without you. I love you, Mom!

DeAnna Jenkins (DeDe Sticher) - April 09 at 08:00 AM

DS

“ Happy Thanksgiving, Mom! I am thankful for having you as my mother. I am grateful for the life we shared, the memories made. Though I am grateful for the time we had, and I know you are in a better place, I do so wish we had been given more time together. Today we continue your traditions in honor of family and times shared. I love and miss you, Mom, and look forward to seeing you again one day.

DeAnna Jenkins (DeDe Sticher) - November 27, 2025 at 07:50 AM

DS

“ Happy Birthday, Mom! It's hard to believe that you've been gone now 11 years, but time does keep moving forward, no matter how much we want to capture it! You sought to raise us to develop into loving, caring, and responsible adults. I can only hope that my actions, deeds, relationships, and accomplishments outweigh any missteps taken and would bring you honor and joy.

DeAnna Jenkins (De De Sticher) - August 21, 2025 at 06:46 AM

DS

“ Happy Anniversary Mon & Dad! So many 4th of July anniversaries and celebrations over the many years. I continue to miss over these past years, but know Dad and you are together, both healed, and in a much better place. On this 4th, I also want to thank you for being a military spouse who served by supporting our family and friends as those we loved were deployed. I love you dearly!

DeAnna Jenkins (DeDe Sticher) - July 04, 2025 at 10:54 PM

DS

“ Happy Easter, Mom! It’s another chilly Easter here. How many Easter holidays did we go for a picnic and it was chilly?! It seems fitting today would be as well! And when it was rainy, we took the Easter Egg (Jelly Bean) hunts inside. What wonderful traditions and experiences you brought to our lives! This is our 1st Easter / holiday without you both. I know you have found each other and are no longer worried about this earthly life. I also know I will see you both again one day. Until then, I will carry your memories and traditions forward with me in my mind and heart! I love you dearly!

“ Happy Birthday Mom! I've thought about you so much throughout today. Every time I signed documents and wrote the date, I took note that it was your day. This morning I thought of you and Theresa, and your custom of calling each other to sing “Happy Birthday!” I miss and love you daily, but these special occasions really bring such sweet memories. Love, DeDe.

“ Mom, I’ve been thinking about you so much of the day, recalling memories of 4ths gone by. It is so hard to believe that you passed 10 years ago today. As much as we want time to stop, slow down, or even reverse, that is not in God’s plan. We each have a path to walk, some getting to the destination so much earlier than others. You are remembered, talked with, and loved daily. You will always be in my / our hearts with love and through so many precious memories!

“ Merry Christmas Mom! It's been 10 Christmas holidays now since you have been with us! I think I miss you more with each passing year. We try to keep family traditions, but sometimes it seems a little harder to do. I so wish you were still here with us to decorate cookies, sing carols, play games, stuff and open stockings, etc. I love you and cherish the times we shared.

“ Happy Birthday, Mom!! Such a bittersweet day. Bitter as you are no longer with us, but sweet for all the memories I have. Some planned, while others just mishaps along the way: Birthday celebrations, holiday traditions, picnics, movie night, Scrabble Saturdays, family game days, family trips (Roadside Bingo), decorated cakes, dogs in ponds, alligators on a beach or in the road, and the list goes on. Thank you (and Dad) for my life filled with wonderful memories.

“ Mom, Yesterday was Easter. We couldn't help thinking of you and all the Easter memories and traditions, the green died coconut and jelly beans on your bird's nest cake, the jelly bean hunts inside the house in Louisiana when it rained, dying Easter eggs, Easter picnics in various locations (it always seemed to be cold or windy!), and the the joy you brought to the holiday. Keeping your love and memories alive always in our hearts!

DS

“ Good morning Mom, We we're home this weekend and your daffodils were beginning to bloom. The tulips were also beginning to show green shoots! Wonderful memories of spring flowers in bloom, planting bulbs and Annie stealing to replant them somewhere else! Loving memories!

“ Rusty was my mother's best friend for many years. I thought she was the coolest mom I knew. She was one of the few people I knew all my life that I am not related to --as her Lou and my Dad were stationed together 3 times (Fort Worth, Puerto Rico, and Altus) when they were both in the Air Force during the 50's and 60's. I count Tracy and DeeDee as my lifelong friends and am grateful they shared their mother with me, I truly loved Rusty.

“ Kind roads, Aunt Rusty... to live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die - and I know Marion lives on in all of our hearts; in the love of her life, Conner; in the lives she and Conner brought into the world and nurtured; and in all she touched.

We grieve her loss here, and the hole she has left in our lives.

With deepest sympathy for your loss, wishing you peace and all condolences in your sorrow.

“ Marion (Rusty) was the best kind of big sister; loving, supportive and lots of fun to be around. She listened and offered advice when asked, and she and her dear husband, Connor (my favorite brother-in-law), always will have a special place in my heart.
