

Mary Anna DeGraw

May 23, 1940 - December 21, 2011

Mary Anna DeGraw, beloved mother and grandmother, lost her courageous battle with cancer on December 21, 2011. She touched many people's lives by being a member of the Enos First Responders. She loved to spend time at the lake fishing, playing bridge, being with her friends and granddaughter. She was born and raised in Ionia, Michigan. She moved to many places and finally settled at the Texoma area with her husband, Jack.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Anna DeGraw

January 08, 2023 at 11:32 PM

“ Mary Anna DeGraw

Gene & Pam Thompson - January 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Oh the fun we have had going to Mary DeGraw. Our lives are much, much better for having become friends with all of you. Our hearts, like yours, are breaking at this moment. Be strong, as she taught you and us, and live for today! Plant flowers, love your family, and be a friend to all people! That's Mary DeGraw! Our friend, our fun-filled delivery, and a genuine joy-filled Lady.

Jeff Sloan - December 23, 2011 at 12:00 AM