“ I remember almost 18 years ago Mary and Darwyn were on the bowling league with my husband and I. My oldest daughter at the time was about 6 months old and we would always bring her playpen to the bowling alley for her to sit in while we bowled. It was hectic keeping up with a baby and bowling at the same time but Mary was always right there offering to hold my daughter and watch her while we bowled. We always ran into them everywhere and stopped to talk. Mary is in a beautiful place now! May God give this family comfort at this time.
