“ Annette has been a very kind and loving sister-in-law. We shared the love of quilting, so we spent many hours going to quilt shows, hording fabric and planning projects. Some of them, we even completed. I will miss her terribly.

Annette was a dear sweet lady. She taught a quilting class at Fairview church for several years. I learned so much from her about quilting & life. Praying for God's comfort & peace to Bill & the family.

Annette was a dear, sweet, kind, smart lady, and she was a really hard worker. I loved being around her at the Opry, at blue grass shows, at the Senior citizens shows, and at church with her and Bill. She was perfect for Bill. Thank You, Lord, for Annette!
