“ she was absolutely lovely, an amazing woman. sadly mine and her relationship couldn't exist outside of our text messages due to other family stuff, and we made so many plans for when i would be older and be at the age to go and do whatever i wanted with her and nobody could stop me. and of course i was wrong. Now im older, take myself to the places i need to be, and make my decisions, but its weird because i waited so long only to spend our sunday breakfasts with ashes.. i have her to myself, just not the way i wanted. Thankfully her time up there will be far more better than it ever could've been down here. ☐

“ Deanna was such a sweet, sweet lady. She was very dedicated to her job and very knowledgeable. Always willing to help new employees and not so new employees navigate their way through the mail system. She was always upbeat. I will miss seeing her when I would make my rounds. God bless you!
