“ Matt, its so hard to belive your gone. its been 2 mo. and i hurt so bad. i went to see michelle the outhur day, and it was so hard knowing you were not gonna walk in at any moment. my greatest moments in life were with you and michelle. we always had so much fun, from sundowners to dicky js. the 3 of us were never apart. i loved you so much matt, i really hope you knew that. sometimes i wounder how our lives would have been like if things would have been diffrent! know matter what we ever went threw, we always cared about eachouther til the very end. michelle misses you so deeply its gonna be really hard for her, but i promise you that i will be there for her, no more disapearing for me, the last time i disapeared i lost you! im not gonna loose her to. when i went over there we talked alot about the good ol days. and we watched the vidio, i tried so hard not to cry, to be strong for her, when she brought me and the kids back home, i dont even think the door had closed compleatly, and i could not stop crying, you will forever be the biggest part of my heart, Ill see you in my dreams matt.

“ Matt was such a joy to be around. He was a great friend, very easy to talk to and never judgmental. He will surely be missed. He is blessed and in the Lord's hands now. May all the family be blessed in knowing he is an Angel watching over you all. We will all join you someday Matt. Rest in Peace my dear friend. I was blessed to see you again in November. I will surely see you again. Misty Ricks
