“ Nanny there isn't a day that goes by that I don't miss you I keep praying that I will get on of Those calls asking when I'm going to be home and I miss walking in the living room and seeing your smiling face I miss your hugs, I miss you kissing my forehead.....I miss you..I miss you telling me everything is going to be ok when times where hard....I miss how you always kept my spirits up no matter what, I miss how unconditionally you loved me no matter what I did, I miss bringing you french fries at midnight, I miss how you kept what little family we had left together and made us get along.....I do want to thank you for giving me the best childhood and upbringing anyone could ever give, thank you for always putting me first and your self last, thank you for taking care Of me all those years and teaching me wrong from right and it was an honor to take care of you in your last months I will love you forever and even tho your gone I will never forget you you will always have a piece of my heart.

“ So sorry for your loss. Many have been comforted by the scriptural hope found in Revelation 21:4 which says: "..death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Please visit jw.org for more information on this hope.
