“ Three of my best memories with you is
1. The day I told you that you was going to be a daddy!!!
2. The day we open the box and let the balloons out we both wanted a boy but when we found out it was a girl we was excited
3. The most important time was when you ask me to be your wife!!
I love you so much
I can't believe this happen
I just want one last promise and that you will watch over me and our baby girl!!!!

“ One time I took him to the ER, he was about four years old,he had real high fever. They put us in a room and the doctor walked in and asked Mikey what wrong....And I kid you not, that little boy looked right at him and said
" I'm in real bad shape, Doc"
We both died laughing so hard! It was damn cute!

“ Mikey I know I didn't get to see you too many times because of us all living far apart but I enjoyed the times I got to be around you and love you because your my cousin. I remember when Tobie and I were little kids she always said when she grew up she wanted a boy and was going to name him Mikey. You were her Mikey! My heart is so sad right now. I know your in heaven with our family with lots of love. Hugs and love to you.
