“ My dear friend of over 40 years has left this world the same way she lived it, with dignity and grace and an undeniable love for God, her family and many friends. We shared so many good times playing golf, going to tournaments and weekend couples tournaments with our hubbies and friends. Our motto was just have fun and enjoy! The weekend pontoon outing was a blast with our friends too. Nawanna was always in the middle of planning surprise parties and our going away party was totally the best ever! She always had a heart of gold and not a selfish bone in her body. I was so blessed to be Nawanna's friend and I will miss her forever and ever!
